

FINES AND FEES POLICY

A public library exists to serve the community and is based on the concept of sharing resources. When one person violates that principle by retaining materials beyond the established limits, that person takes unfair advantage of the community as a whole. Patrons are encouraged to follow lending loan periods and return materials on time. Upon return, all material must be returned to the collection and may not be immediately borrowed by the user for 24-hours. The Glen Ridge Public Library agrees with the American Library Association policy statement that the "imposition of monetary library fines creates a barrier to the provision of library and information services."

APPLICATION

This policy applies to Glen Ridge-owned material only. Materials borrowed via BCCLS are still subject to fines.

3. The library will notify a patron thirty (30), sixty (60), and ninety (90) days after the items' due date. Notification is done through email or by postal mail depending on what the patron has selected as his/her notification option. 9. No fines will accrue on days that the library is closed.
10. The library notifies patrons of overdue materials via email or postal mail.
11. Any unrestricted patron with an account balance of ten dollars ($10) or more, or an unpaid lost item shall forfeit borrowing, renewing, and access to public computers until the charge is below ten dollars ($10).
